Re: Violation of Constitutional Rights committed by Commissioner and co-conspirators

Dear Commission,

Enclosed are letters written to Judge and Commissioner

The Judicial Handbook states; any complaint in any form, the letters clearly show my concerns as early as November 24, 2006, ample time for Commissioner to correct obvious Constitutional violation.

Instead, ignored and with scienter violated my 5th Amendment Right in collusion with above named individuals.

I look forward to appropriate action being taken against for her conduct and possibly if he fails to report after he has been made aware of conduct by someone in his charge.

If an accused cannot rely on Judges or Commissioners to protect their Constitutional Rights then he must rely on this commission or seek relief in Federal Courts.

I look forward to your response within 72 hours.

Respectfully submitted this 7th day of December, 2006
