

State of Arizona
COMMISSION ON JUDICIAL CONDUCT

Disposition of Complaint 07-087

NOTICE

On March 28, 2007, the Commission on Judicial Conduct opened a file on its own motion to monitor the health of a judge who had contracted cancer and was frequently absent from the courthouse for extended periods of time to undergo treatment. The judge died in August of the same year, and the commission closed the file with no further action.