To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing this letter to put my complaint in writing as well as my verbal one with judge Toby.

My complaint is the fact that the judge that heard my case was rude unprofessional and impartial. I feel this was due to the fact that we are Hispanic and the plaintiffs were white. We came to this conclusion due to the fact that after we gave our opening statements we were not permitted to speak another word and when ever we tried to speak we were told to shut up or be quiet. The judge only allowed the plaintiff to speak and did not give us a chance to rebut any of their accusations they said. The judge never acknowledged the fact of our counter claim. I feel this case should be heard again and allow us to present our information that we have that was not permitted or you could give a corrective judgment in favor of both with no one owing anything.

Please call me with an answer asap at 1-877-218-1258 is my direct line at work.

Thank You
