Judge is [redacted] Justice court and the case number is [redacted] i filed a judgement and the judge is refusing to sign it, but had no problem signing a judgement against me, spoke to an attorney and they said they never heard of this, since a default judgement is what it is.

Your complaint is too vague to investigate. In order to process your grievance, you must provide the name of the judge and your case number. You may either download a complaint form from our website (where you found this e-mail address) or call our office and request that one be mailed to you.

Commission Staff

I sued a defendant at [redacted] Justice Court, his attorney failed to abide by the court rules, and answer within the 20 days, then failed to answer within the extra ten days he answered when he felt like it and I filed a default judgement, and the judge is not signing it? I am a disabled person and will also notify a disability advocate as this judge shows clear prejudice he had no problem signing a judgement against me? Guess i will have to borrow money to get any attorney to go after you and you judge
