On  Approximately, I went in front of Honorable  Superior Court Division  on charges of Driving Under the influence of alcohol. On this day a trial was going forward and I was the Defendant. On this day the Court appointed lawyer representing me  put me on the witness stand with a jury present and told me <sup>Quote</sup> "did I know I had two Misdemeanor DUI's before getting behind the wheel?" This Misconduct was prejudicial unprofessional and certainly unconstitutional for any indigent to have a fair trial. Honorable  didn't bother to say anything and just sat there reading something while the jury looked "shocked" by this Judge allowing something so incriminating to be occurring in his courtroom without saying anything to protect my Constitutional Rights. Honorable  conduct needs to be investigated. His Courtroom has no fairness or protections for indigent defendant in criminal proceeding. It is the duty of him to Honorably run his courtroom fairly and lawfully not prejudicially. The enclosed motion I filed upset the judge and he didn't respond and threw my case out. This motion was the absolute truth and I had a Constitutional Right to be heard.

Thank You.
