Dear Sirs,

Ref: Judge

This is a formal complaint against the above judge. This Judge has recently acted totally in a partial manner favorably for the landlord. Judge  let the lawyer for the Plaintiff "Landlords" first to interrupt my deposition, when I could not even move my head when the lawyer was doing his deposition; do the rules apply for both parties? Judge  did not even look at the evidence I was providing, past a judgment on what the landlord lawyer was saying, not letting me finish my deposition!!!

I am already trying to clear my name from an Identification Theft, I do not need a judgment falsely past against me in my credit report, and I certainly will not pay this judgment!!

Please find enclosed all relevant documentations in regards to the case. In anticipation of some positive actions against this Judge on your part, I remain,
