Dear Commissioner Stott Jr.

*The case number is I don't know the name of the Justice of the Peace.
I was not present at the hearing because the attorney for the Plaintiff did not serve me with a summons to appear. In addition, were two people on the lease at lives at the above address. The house was to be my retirement impending legal action, during the life of the lease. I feel that my right to due process of law was violated. obstructed my right to appear in court to defend myself. appeared. And all of the negotiations and correspondence was addressed to The Justice of the Peace entered the judgment, a Special Detainer against me without requesting proof of legal service of the summons. My daughter was not forthcoming in letting me know about the summons, as she did not let me know about late rents, or what was really going on in the eviction process. I did not find out that my name was on the judgment until after the fact. I then hired an attorney to try and reach an agreement. The obligation to notify me was the responsibility of the Landlord; the summons to appear was the responsibility of the attorney. The Justice of the Peace should have verified with the attorney the legal service of the summons to me, after all, I was not present.

The Justice of the Peace should have entered the judgment against only.
If you can't get justice in a court of law, where can you get justice? I would have appeared to defend myself if I would have had any prior knowledge of the legal action.
Thanking you in advance for any help that you can give me.*
