I will not stand for this! My rights as a father have been violated for no reason. I will not quit. Justice will be served and I especially hope that those who are supposed to be impartial and are not get what they rightly deserve. Arizona is an unfair state and especially to all those who live out of the state of Arizona.

Well I have no idea what you are referring to when you are talking about the Supreme Court because the United States Supreme Court it is really not believable and I am telling you. You can believe what you want I am just telling you. The court here and the divorce was just a joke. The state of Arizona had no right to proceed the way that they did. The state of Arizona did. I have as a high court in this state, higher than the superior court in this state; I have no choice but to follow those orders. I have read and gone over the divorce decree validly issued by the Superior Court in Arizona and granting sole custody to and limiting your visitation to therapeutic visitation and if you want us too we will still continue this hearing. What I am telling you is that you have to provide evidence that would justify overturning the order of protection. I am telling you I have no evidence, I have not spoken to them, I have not harassed them, I have not done anything. I don't know where she comes up with these lies, but I don't know where she comes up with these lies but that is what they are basically lies. If you can show me some kind of proof where I have harassed them in any other way than becoming a good father and trying to check up on them, then you can condemn me for that. Other than that there is nothing that she can say or do that states that I done something wrong. Well we are going to continue the hearing. Ok we will notify you of the date and time and notify you when will be available and you can appear telephonically. Court is adjourned.

is waiting for my visitation, It is my 14th Amendment right to see and hear from my boys. There has to be a reason she is hiding them from me and not allowing me to see them. has taken 2 years of my visitation away from me! Tell me "why" I should have to pay child support if I am not able to hear from them or see them? This is not fair and it is unjust. What is she hiding? What is she hiding? and CPS need to be checked out thoroughly because what she is doing to the boys and me is unjust. This will act as notice that I will do everything in my power to see and talk to my boys and I will seek damages for duress. This has put stress on me and I have lost my job because of this.
