I was ~~surprised~~ with a court order of protection by my mother. I was surprised when this happened and was very upset about what she had put in it. None of this was true. I had a witness to the fact and requested a fair hearing never got it and this is why. When I went to court and when court was called to order all witnesses were sworn in and was asked to leave the court room. I always thought the plaintiff was the first to go, but in justice court, I defendant had to go first. While I was talking my mother made a smart remark justice said nothing, but when it was her turn she added more lies to her made up story and I said something that when justice turn on me he scream at me ordering me out of his court he even stood up with his gavel shaking it at me still screaming get out of my court. He also told me my mother had already won her case. I have been before justice in the past, he told me to my face he does not like me and would like to throw the key away, this is a very bias Judge. Justice should have never sit in on this case because his son is good friends with my oldest daughter and her son has turned my daughter against me and trying to do the same with the youngest. Plus son is friends with my brother also worked at same company. This person has put orders on me in the past and I'm tired of her made up about me. So I stood up for my rights look where it got me. should be stepped down from this case. Please tell me how justice of the peace try criminal cases.
