I Mother, called in to Justice court to see if had any warrants out for him, The lady on the phone said he had one out concerning something in Dec. I let her know that was not well and had been in car wreck and that I picked up papers there last week why didn't they tell me when I ask them about warrants or court dates, then she said was aware of them and that he needs to straighten up, I said not well that's what I'm seeing about them for him, she talked with Judge while I was on hold she said he said for me to write up a paper, on the 25th and the 26th I called court back the lady said he hasn't looked at paper yet, so I called again on the morning of the 29th to Justice court. The lady said Judge said to tell me that if I brought in to Justice court to talk with to him that Judge would drop the warrant that was out on I picked up from the hospital in from a police chase car crash on the 25th early morning the wreck was the night of the 24th was life line lifted to from Racks borrowed a car from these guys that lived in it was stolen and not in his mind, was not aware or intentionally know he was engage in illegal conduct, he honestly misperceives reality, and may be morally innocent, these crimes that getting charged for was not intentional
