ORDER

The commission reviewed the complaint filed in this matter as well as the transcript of the second trial and found no ethical misconduct on the part of the judge. If a litigant disagrees with a judge's ruling, the remedy is through an appeal to a higher court. The commission is not a court and cannot change a judge's decisions, therefore, the complaint is dismissed pursuant to Rules 16(a) and 23.

Dated: December 10, 2008.

He doesn't attack people, or burn their cars up or throw houses down; he files cases in a society that is more & more negligent & reckless. w/o desire, intent or a plan, he found himself an activist. However, in the courts in Az., you are looked down upon, if you file cases. The Truth is, that each case should be investigated on the facts & the law. When you file in proper, you are held to the attorney standard, but not treated the same as an attorney. the court demands respect, but has little respect for those before it & there is no free speech in the court room.

Plaintiff doesn't expect case to be reviewed to a conclusion. He is filing that case to better understand & to give background for case. No would have not been decided in the manner it was. However, if you have time & can handle both cases to a conclusion, it would be greatly appreciated & in my favor.
