COMPLAINT AGAINST A JUDGE (con't)

Judge _____ conspired with State Prosecutor _____ and my attorney _____ at my trial to bring about a wrongful felony conviction for DUI without a valid driver license (Aggravated DUI). Facts: Judge _____ and my attorney _____ allowed the state prosecutor _____ to fabricate false facts to the jury, specifically that my _____ 1991 canceled Arizona driver license was subsequently suspended in 1992 and the Arizona driver license was under suspension on _____ 1995 DUI arrest. The actual facts was that my _____ 1991 canceled Arizona driver license was irrelevant and my subsequent _____ 1992 nonresident driver license suspension period had run in 1993 and the possession of my drivers license upon arrest was a clear exercise of my nonresident driving privilege to drive in Arizona on the _____ 1995 DUI arrest.

Attached in my most recent Arizona Board of Executive Clemency Pardon Application that was denied along with a request for a new pardon hearing that was also denied (copy attached) by the Board. The attachment basically sums up a lifelong pursuit to the ends of justice that I was wrongfully convicted in an unfair trial by Judge _____ for Felony DUI without a valid license.

Please request any additional specific information needed for review. The reason for the delay is many reasons. I am an out of state resident, I tried to find relief thru "Rule 32", "Federal Habeas Corpus Relief" and a "Pardon" (3 applications, _____) to the governor.

Since this is fruitless, and none of the avenues of relief looked into my assertion of a wrongful conviction, I am left to pursue this avenue as a last resort for now until a new pardon hearing is allowed
