Hi: I had gone to the Justice Court, 30 days before the hearing, and had asked for a extension was told no

The day of the hearing I asked again for an extension, was told by a woman (name) that it was to short of time.

When the judge came in and address me. I said I would like a 30 day extension, he ignored me, did not want to see my legal papers, showing that the well was my, and had been in possession of the land for 28 years, and had adverse possession of the land for 10 years before the brought the, and did not move my fence until.

During the hearing I again asked for a lawyer, because the subject in cold, very serious concerns.

I believe told the judge what I was going to do, he the judge acted like he didn't want to hear me.

The judge said if I didn't go for the mediation, that he would be forced to modify my injunction against my harassment
