Complainant: No. 1282210245A

Judge: No. 1282210245B

ORDER

The commission reviewed the complaint filed in this matter and found no ethical misconduct on the part of the judge. The complainant disagrees with the judge's decisions and filed his complaint after the court of appeals denied jurisdiction in his case. Since the commission is not a court and cannot change a judge's decisions, the complaint is dismissed pursuant to Rules 16(a) and 23.

Dated: January 26, 2009.

1. Judge made so many errors in the lower court case which he set for trial that, when Judge was assigned as the Trialer in the case - then Judge removed that - filed an extra-ordinary motion to Judge Court to see if the problem's caused by Judge could not be straightened out before trial.

2. Judge no longer having jurisdiction over the case, did not allow Judge to file. Judge in a sleeping denial denied everything.

3. file a petition for special action and the courts refused jurisdiction. See attached petition for special action - & appendix & filing

(Attach additional sheets as needed)

This leaves only one avenue for to gain some sense of believe that the courts will follow the rules and the Rule of Law will prevail - so far it hasn't - Judge covers most
