On the first place she set the time and date for hearing. After it started she stated she did not know why were here for, or what we suppose to be doing today. And put her hands on her head like she was to confused to deal with anything. Even after she read the paper work in front of her she could not tell us why were exactly here for. This judge has order in court not once ~~but~~ but twice that we have ~~immediate~~ visitation with are grandson, both orders have been ignored, we have filed over and over that she inforce her orders and she denies our motion time and again. We have been denied any visitation with are grandson now for nine months. I don't know how this can be, we were ordered visitation. We have not done anything wrong, and want our legal rights inforced. Our son was also order visitation, which was then ignored also for the last 2 months. ~~Dear~~ Our attorney has approached Attorney General's office about this and cannot understand what she could be thinking. At the hearing refered to above when she was questioned about visitation she asked how long it had been they had ^{been}

She seen the child, our attorney replied 8 or 9 months. she stated well the damage has already been done, another 2 weeks or a month won't matter.

The damage she caused to the child because she would not enforce her own orders. This woman is apparently not mentally able to have any rational or common sense thoughts on this matter, or in my ~~opinion~~ opinion and legal matters at all, I would like a fast response to this matter, so we ~~are~~ ^{are} able to see our grandson. This is not just!!!
