To Whom it may Concern,

My claim in short is, Judge is not reading everything he is signing - often not signing at all.

It's my understanding that he has 60 Days to rule on matters before him, and signs an affidavit swearing he has done so. How much longer will I have to wait for a ruling on "the motion for reconsideration?"

Judge seems confused in court, he forgets from one minute to the next about what's going on, including what he said or ruled upon. He relies on attorney Bays to guide him.

I hope to prevent other people and their children from enduring injustice in this court. I believe children should be the first and most important focus for a judge, not the last.

Thank you for taking the time to review this material.
