Re: Judge

To whom it may concern:

Judge "representative" stated that he was not informed that Ms. was afraid for her life, but the attached evidence is to the contrary. Why did Judge request a clearance letter from the Respondent? Also, there was a restraining order in effect at the time of his ruling, why was the Respondent permitted to travel to Mother's house three to four times per week? Far too much temptation, the Respondent was unstable and unemployed. This ruling was a recipe for disaster and Judge should have known that. He should be held accountable for their deaths.

He must be stopped before he kills again.

Sincerely,

Anonymous
