COMPLAINT AGAINST A JUDGE

Judge violated my rights to freedom of speech which is constitutionally protected.

Judge told me in a court order I, a black man could not discuss the Ku Klux Klan involvement in Black History with my Black sons. Their existence has a profound history with Black people and particular with my family culture and geographical area I was raised.

Due to these restrictions and I have been trying to appeal his decisions on several occasions and the judge keeps rewording it. I clearly asked to appeal and it was turned into a change of venue.
