ORDER

The complainant alleged that a superior court commissioner improperly denied his motion to quash. After reviewing the complaint and the court record, the commission found no evidence of ethical misconduct. The primary allegations concern the commissioner's decisions, which are outside the jurisdiction of the commission. Accordingly, the complaint is dismissed in its entirety pursuant to Rules 16(a) and 23.

Dated: September 8, 2011.

State Bar of Arizona:

A Motion to Quash Probation was filed with the Maricopa County Superior Court of Arizona. I signed a Plea Agreement for 4.5 years. I also received 5 years of Probation. Probation was not stipulated in my Plea Agreement. There was no disclosure as to the fact. I never agreed or signed for Probation.

Also, when I received my Agg. DUI case, I was on Probation for my prior DUI cases. So I had already violated Probation and was not eligible for Probation.

My "Motion to Quash Probation" was denied by Commissioner. I find her decision to be prejudicial to justice. Therefore, I would like to file a criminal complaint towards Commissioner.

Since there has been a breach of my Plea Agreement, I would like the Court to resolve the matter.
