I asked a witness a yes/no answer three times and the witness refused to answer yes or no. Judge did not instruct,

Instead the witness answered with testimony from events of Nov 21, 2010 which were supported by plaintiff's exhibit 2, a police incident report dated Nov 21, 2010. The witness was Henry Villa

The trial was solely about the events of Nov 17 2010 as stated by the judge in his opening remarks Nov 21, 2010.

During a break in the trial while I was not in the courtroom the judge and plaintiff's attorney made derogatory remarks about me and the plaintiff's witnesses laughed. ~~which leads me to believe the judgement was a~~

I have reviewed the For The Record CD's which were given to me by Judge Tolby & his assistant Rebecca after I complained to the presiding Judge Norman Davis about Justice court clerks giving me 2 CD's without the conversation during the interruption in the trial and which were in audio format only.
