ORDER

The complainant alleged that a municipal court judge mishandled her protective order case.

The responsibility of the Commission on Judicial Conduct is to impartially determine if the judge engaged in conduct that violated the provisions of Article 6.1 of the Arizona Constitution or the Code of Judicial Conduct and, if so, to take appropriate disciplinary action. The purpose and authority of the commission is limited to this mission.

After reviewing the information provided by the complainant and the recording of the hearing, the commission found no evidence of ethical misconduct and concluded that the judge did not violate the Code in this case. Accordingly, the complaint is dismissed in its entirety pursuant to Rules 16(a) and 23.

Dated: March 6, 2012.

Dear Arizona Supreme Court, 1/5/12 my 43rd
B-Day

Nothing astonishes men more than common sense and plain dealing.
I pride myself in being a straight forward, civic minded, mother, daughter, athlete, teacher and all around great person.

The Honorable <sup>subling</sup>
to squash an order of protection against a former boyfriend is poor judgement.

An order of protection is for me to to feel safe. Due to my high profile job & character, I do not feel safe.
I may have to move into a gated community for protection against stalkers and others with ill intent.
It is the judges position to assess
a threatening situation, and that simply did not happen on 12/28/11 @ 3:30 pm.

I encourage you to listen and review the recordings.

Listen, listen, listen and THEN ask strategic questions. Judge failed to listen.

All the Best,
