COMMISSION ON JUDICIAL CONDUCT

Disposition of Complaint 12-269

Complainant: No. 1452710741A

Judge: No. 1452710741B

ORDER

The complainant alleged a superior court judge failed to properly consider two motions to change counsel.

The responsibility of the Commission on Judicial Conduct is to impartially determine if the judge engaged in conduct that violated the provisions of Article 6.1 of the Arizona Constitution or the Code of Judicial Conduct and, if so, to take appropriate disciplinary action. The purpose and authority of the commission is limited to this mission.

After reviewing the information provided by the complainant along with several minute entry orders in the case, the commission found no evidence of ethical misconduct and concluded that the judge did not violate the Code in this case. The commission does not have jurisdiction to review the legal sufficiency of the judge's rulings. Accordingly, the complaint is dismissed in its entirety, pursuant to Rules 16(a) and 23.

Dated: November 2, 2012.

I AM unhappy with my counsel I put in a motion to HAVE my counsel changed. THE second time, I put in a motion
I wrote, why, I wanted to change counsel and she never took me to court, so I can be heard. My rights are supposed to be upheld by the judge and she is letting them be violated by keeping my attorney. Also, she didn't hear the second motion, so she violated my right by not going to court. MARVIN DAVIS HAS DONE nothing for me, but broke his oath AS AN ATTORNEY
