ORDER

The complainant alleged a judge continues to require him to attend child support review hearings even though his children are grown and he can only pay so much to his ex-wife based on limited financial resources.

The responsibility of the Commission on Judicial Conduct is to impartially determine if the judge engaged in conduct that violated the provisions of Article 6.1 of the Arizona Constitution or the Code of Judicial Conduct and, if so, to take appropriate disciplinary action. The purpose and authority of the commission is limited to this mission.

After review, the commission found no evidence of ethical misconduct and concluded that the judge did not violate the Code in this case. Accordingly, the complaint is dismissed in its entirety, pursuant to Rules 16(a) and 23.

Dated: October 23, 2013.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN,

My name is _____ I have been going to Court since 2011 with this Judge and he has been giving me the run around and I have been showing him the paper work that I can only pay so much to my ex-wife, and she wants more I am on SSI and I have shown the Judge the proof that I am on a fixed income. And all the Judge said is I will see you at the next court hearing, the State said the case said it is closed and I have talked to a lady by the name of _____ to see if it is true and she said the same thing , and _____ old me to get in contact with Irene so I did and she told me that they are not going to open the case either due to the kids are grown up and have their own children. But the Judge has given me another court date for the 9th of December 2013, the State is also sending me all my checks back to me, and the Judge now wants me to start sending my ex-wife the checks to her.

I have enclosed some papers to show you that I have done what the Judge has asked me to do.
