The complainant alleged a superior court judge discriminated against her, improperly refused to accept evidence at an evidentiary hearing, and made an erroneous ruling.

The purpose and authority of the commission is limited to this mission.

After review of the complaint, the commission found no evidence of ethical misconduct and concluded that the judge did not violate the Code in this case. The commission does not have jurisdiction to review the legal sufficiency of court rulings. Accordingly, the complaint is dismissed in its entirety, pursuant to Rules 16(a) and 23.
