On _____ ordered me to Pay attorney fees in the amount of _____ Under the _____ dollar precedent. I objected Seeing as how that precedent had nothing to do with my case. On _____ Judge Acknowledged my objection and her mistake and over turned that order.
 I then received a copy of a court order months later of a missed court date and a court order confirming an previous attorney order. The court was well aware of my address and purposely sent the hearing date to a previous address so as to backdate that attorney fees order. The court was well aware of my address and so was the attorney for respondent. And conveniently this was the only piece of paperwork that could not find my address
