ON
Admiss. Their is an order sent to me giving me a hearing date. The document only says the hearing will be about only the Defendant Attorney Motion To Dismiss my Complaint. The order document does not say the hearing will also be the Plaintiff's Motion To Default. The Judge is being discriminatory and is disrupting the Court case allowing the 1 Party to be the event of the hearing. I am the Plaintiff it is my case I have the burden to show my information about my complaint against a Defendant - Civil Law says I do.

The Judge has no ruling on the case but she is not a fair individual working for justice for Americans. Civil Justice the 10 Commandments and the Constitution give all people freedom of speech. And the Civil Law to give the Plaintiff motion civil right to go before the court before the Defendant is to talk about their Motion To Dismiss.

The Judge's behavior of discriminatory acts the Judge should remove herself or be removed from the case of the Plaintiff be cause of the conduct of avoiding the Civil Laws the Plaintiff who files his/her complaint files a motion their motion needs to be heard first before the Defendant
