COMMISSION ON JUDICIAL CONDUCT

Disposition of Complaint 14-259

Judge:

Complainant:

ORDER

The complainant expressed disagreement with a superior court judge's decisions in several cases.

The responsibility of the Commission on Judicial Conduct is to impartially determine if the judge engaged in conduct that violated the provisions of Article 6.1 of the Arizona Constitution or the Code of Judicial Conduct and, if so, to take appropriate disciplinary action. The purpose and authority of the commission is limited to this mission.

The commission does not have jurisdiction to review the legal sufficiency of the judge's rulings. In addition, the commission found no evidence of ethical misconduct and concluded that the judge did not violate the Code in this case. Accordingly, the complaint is dismissed in its entirety, pursuant to Rules 16(a) and 23.

Dated: October 2, 2014

FOR THE COMMISSION

Since _____ seemed to have such a problem with us, we had _____ put in that my wife _____ would become my Mothers guardian and it did not cost another penny of lawyer fees from then to my Mothers passing on _____ My Father passed on _____ and all during this time we along with my brother _____ took Dad to see Mom, cleaned his house, took him shopping, to doctors, lawyers, took care of his yard and whatever else was needed and did not charge him a dime. This is what sons and daughters are supposed to do for their parents when the need arises, not abuse them and cause grief. Dad even after his replacement had mobile issues but had a mind as sharp as a tack. He had a law firm _____ change his side of the trust and had _____ taken out and disowned.
Upon his passing his half of the estate was to go to _____ and me. If he out lived Mom _____ would receive nothing, which is exactly what he wanted. He seemed to lose his will to live and could never get over what his daughter and _____ did to him and why he should have to pay her bills on an illegal ruling by a judge.
After Moms passing and the house sold, my brother sent _____ her third of Moms estate minus _____ that would have been in the estate if not for _____ failed attempt to take over everything. I had sent my brother a bill that I believe my wife and I earned for watching over Mom and not charging during this period. He explained that he was dividing it up the way the folks wanted, and I was good with that. _____ was also told there was a storage locker in _____ with her third of Moms belongings. She has refused to cash her check and never picked up her belongings. After _____ they where sold for storage fees, that my brother was paying out of his own money. He was told by one set of her lawyers, (she is now on her _____ that they would pay the storage fees, but never did.

This started in _____ and _____ did not even know her Dad had passed over _____ earlier. Now in _____ we go back to court in front of the ever infinite wisdom of Judge _____. Once again he completely ignored the trust when I told him that it says anyone that balks over their share and the way the Trustee deems to divide it up they get nothing. _____ and _____ current lawyer _____ have threatened to take away the trusteeship from my brother even though it states it takes two siblings to do so. _____ is also a good friend of _____ who has only _____ come to one hearing but I believe has her claws deep into this whole mess. What good is having a trust made up when A crooked Judge will do whatever he cares to do even though this whole matter should not have ever been brought before him. This doing a favor for friends and causing families untold grief should be against the law. Oh wait, it is, unless they can get away with it Also in the hearing in which we met _____ we were there early and had to go out of the courtroom because they were to hold a juvenile hearing. When they came out and told us we could go back in, we sat down and a few minutes later _____ walks into the courtroom out of Judge _____ chambers. Judge _____ is in my opinion a disgrace to the Justice system and if the United States has the best system in the world, which I was told when going to school. I pity the rest of the world. But I guess when you and your family are honest people that never needed lawyers to manage their affairs, I guess fighting a rotten sibling and a crooked Judge becomes a lesson in life. Judge _____ also assigned an independent observer by the name of _____ _____ who ruled in our favor in the first case. Again doing a favor for a friend took precedence as _____ totally ignored _____
