ORDER

The complainant alleged that a superior court commissioner failed to correctly apply the law.

The responsibility of the Commission on Judicial Conduct is to impartially determine if the commissioner engaged in conduct that violated the provisions of Article 6.1 of the Arizona Constitution or the Code of Judicial Conduct and, if so, to take appropriate disciplinary action. The purpose and authority of the commission is limited to this mission.

The commission does not have jurisdiction to review the legal sufficiency of the judicial officer's rulings. In addition, the commission found no evidence of ethical misconduct and concluded that the commissioner did not violate the Code in this case. Accordingly, the complaint is dismissed in its entirety, pursuant to Rules 16(a) and 23.

One of the (3) requirements for a judge to become a judge states: Admitted to the practice of the law in Arizona. Judge _____, Did "Not" apply the Law when making his decision in the "Forfeiture" order in this case. The "Evidence" on the side of the claimants was there. Judge _____ did not consider the claimants evidence, therefore he did "Not" apply the law. The Law is the Law! He, Judge _____ is guilty of "MISCONDUCT." Please, investigate. If, you do your investigation right you will see we are right, and claimants should have gotten their property back in their possession. Please do not, sweep this, under the "Rug of Corruption!"
