COMMISSION ON JUDICIAL CONDUCT

Disposition of Complaint 14-333

Judge:

Complainant:

ORDER

The complainant alleged that various judges engaged in judicial misconduct by approving the reduction of her workers' compensation disability award.

The responsibility of the Commission on Judicial Conduct is to impartially determine if the judges engaged in conduct that violated the provisions of Article 6.1 of the Arizona Constitution or the Code of Judicial Conduct and, if so, to take appropriate disciplinary action. The purpose and authority of the commission is limited to this mission.

The commission does not have jurisdiction over the conduct of a state administrative law judge. Nor does the commission have jurisdiction to review the legal sufficiency of the judges' rulings. In addition, the commission found no evidence of ethical misconduct and concluded that the judges did not violate the Code in this case. Accordingly, the complaint is dismissed in its entirety, pursuant to Rules 16(a) and 23.

Through you, Mr. [REDACTED] your clients have shown a total disregard of the law and those they injured. They have perjured themselves, made fraudulent claims, manipulated the legal system, have tried to destroy my credibility, and caused me financial harm with all of this continued litigation. I can prove this through my court documents, and I believe that there was, and continues to be, malicious misconduct and intent to retaliate. I know my rights as an individual and an employee have been violated, and I don't take this lightly.

Since the date of my injuries, your clients have never provided for timely care, nor paid in a timely manner. I already have a signed stipulation that I am entitled to
