COMMISSION ON JUDICIAL CONDUCT

Disposition of Complaint 14-348

Judge:

Complainant:

ORDER

The complainant alleged a superior court judge improperly granted an order of protection when underlying criminal charges were not pursued.

The responsibility of the Commission on Judicial Conduct is to impartially determine if the judge engaged in conduct that violated the provisions of Article 6.1 of the Arizona Constitution or the Code of Judicial Conduct and, if so, to take appropriate disciplinary action. The purpose and authority of the commission is limited to this mission.

After review, the commission found no evidence of ethical misconduct and concluded that the judge did not violate the Code in this case. Accordingly, the complaint is dismissed in its entirety, pursuant to Rules 16(a) and 23.

Dated: November 19, 2014

on - the judge ordered a protection order based on pending allegations on the Police Dept. the judge granted a protection order, without hearing any factual evidence, the Det. was found out that he fabricated his report, and admitted under oath that he did not hear the evidence, and based his report on a year old body motion. The woman interviewed and stated in her professional opinion told the truth. The Det. filed an Intentional False Arrest on So both and all parties, the judge, the opposing counsel and the best interest attorney, all knew the charges were dropped, yet the judge issued the protection order, then immediately recused herself from the case, the judge did this in spite because after she went against the court appointed evaluator. recommended that the children should remain with the father, I picketed in front of the court house, and she was up for Re-election, And granting me primary custody - would not look good, since I do have a criminal record, so the judge put her re-election in front of the court evaluator who for never went against the court evaluator. In my case she did not follow his recommendations, because of personal gains, my life + were traumatized because of the illegal protection order. Also the judge had an ex-parte hearing without me or my counsel. This was a calculated, and vindictive act with opposing counsel. and the appointed 'Best Interest Attorney, she brought in. He had never been a Best Interest Attorney. So this was clearly a vindictive Act. I hope something is done, till this day are hunting where she sent them to. Any judge that puts their re-election in front of the safety of the should be fired, and ordered to pay for emotional damage and all attorney fees that I incurred, because of her illegal protection order. And to this day the Best Interest Attorney acts as if I was charged, Thank you

But all charges were dismissed
And to this day the Police Dept.
has not turned over the Full Interview - un Redacted - I suspect she is behind this,
