ORDER

The complainants alleged a justice of the peace made improper rulings in a forcible detainer case.

The responsibility of the Commission on Judicial Conduct is to impartially determine if the judge engaged in conduct that violated the provisions of Article 6.1 of the Arizona Constitution or the Code of Judicial Conduct and, if so, to take appropriate disciplinary action. The purpose and authority of the commission is limited to this mission.

The commission does not have jurisdiction to review the legal sufficiency of the judge's rulings. In addition, the commission found no evidence of ethical misconduct and concluded that the judge did not violate the Code in this case. Accordingly, the complaint is dismissed in its entirety, pursuant to Rules 16(a) and 23.

Instructions: Use this form or plain paper of the same size to file a complaint. Describe in your own words what you believe the judge did that constitutes judicial misconduct. Be specific and list all of the names, dates, times, and places that will help the commission understand your concerns. Additional pages may be attached along with copies (not originals) of relevant court documents. Please complete one side of the paper only, and keep a copy of the complaint for your records.

The next court session my son was once again being accused of "threatening and intimidating" and Plaintiff brought the supposed victim and put her on the stand. The judge found the testimony compelling enough to find the ruling against my son and his two friends, who were also there. They plead "not guilty" and told the court "we will take the plea bargain and move out" - to avoid further problems with the courts and Plaintiff.

I have many witnesses who heard the families of the two other young men accused of not only threatening and intimidating, but also threatening to "rape" the security guard. Yet, there were "no charges" to find anyone accused of any of these allegations.

I write this letter today because there is injustice in the state of Arizona by a system that allows twisting and fabrication by altering and amending testimony and lack of real proof.

As of yet I have not been able to obtain my home because of the plaintiff's continual manipulations.
