I was not allowed to get my personal belongings from my now ex-husband except for standbys and then I was told I could not go inside and I had to stand in the street and just take what ever he put on the At the mediation the judge ask if he would let me go in and take pictures of my things that were left. He was asked times and he said yes. when I went in was upset that he had to let me in and followed me to the back door and opened it and physically shoved me out the door and told me I would never get back in that house. The judge was told this, I had video and he refused to see it or let me confirm what happened.

I had to go to the emergency while and were still married. I did not have my insurance information so he was called to bring it. He told the people that we were not married and that I was just a friend he was helping out, and that I didn't have insurance. He is part and gave them that insurance information so I received from the reservation and a bill of over for the emergency. told them my name was not The judge ruled that I had used an alias.

credit was bad so I paid off his bills to help make it better. He had me purchase all the furniture for our house and would not pay for it. All that went on my credit score vet the judge let have all the furniture. I had pictures of what the house looked like when I married and moved in. I paid for all the inside to be remodeled, windows, doors, carpet, tile, paint and accessories to the painting, and did all the painting myself. I also paid for cabinets for the kitchen and had them taken apart and put outside.

I put a down payment on a truck for and paid the extra insurance, for the the and made the payments out of the money I had before and were married. When my money ran out and his cousin had the stolen so he wouldn't have to make the payments. I made an insurance fraud report.

is capable of working but has been told by him brother to stop working until the divorce is over so he wouldn't have to pay alimony. is a drug addict so he spent all that time doing drugs and the judge saw the first time at and the last time at about He said was elderly and couldn't work after I told the judge that was a drug addict.

I had proof that when works he makes over a year. He makes a month when he works which happened many times. He has nothing to show for it because he uses it on drugs. I told the judge that as well.

Now, when we first went before Judge he asked if he was related to the in said yes, and the judge replied that he had grown up with them. He knows the and I felt that he should have stepped down at that time and turned our case over to another judge.

Mr. was attorney and told my attorney, that he knew was lying and just wanted to get the case over with and get rid of

Mr. submitted of what was supposed to be will to show was not getting any money. This paperwork was obviously fraudulent because it did not say any thing as far as an executor of the will, who got what as far as properties. It only listed a few people in the family that brother put down as receiving a piece. told me when he had a meeting with his brother, that he as their sister were going to get a lot of money, they just had to wait then proceeded to make me leave my husband. I was locked out of my home after returning from the and was told by drug addict women living there that had told them not to let me in and that he had been ordered by and to change the locks and not let me in. The judge was told this also.

I bought and paid for a vehicle before and I got together, yet the judge says in the paperwork that if I don't keep up the payments and insurance on it will get it. doesn't have a vehicle because his brother took it away from him. Like I said that vehicle is my personal property, has been paid for before Judge contradicted himself several times and all this is what he ruled. He saw was a drug addict and heard him lying and contradicting himself. is a member of the When they are not on a job their names go on a list. If they are fired from a job they cannot get another job for If they do then the will fine them. told the judge this then told him that had applied for a job at and Contradicted himself.

told me he didn't want me to work when we got married because his and a had cheated on him while he was at work. He wanted me home so he could call me and I would be there when he returned home. He told the judge that I could have worked at any time.

I had all the evidence, he had nothing. Our trial ended on and the judge made his ruling on because my attorney said he received the ruling the morning of

That did not give the judge time to look through all the paperwork. It was our opinion that the judge had already made his decision before I testified because we found out on I that he had already divorced us on None of us knew, so we then knew that he had already made his decision before my testimony.

Everyone in the courtroom knew was lying, including his attorney as I said, yet the judge let get away with perjury. All the paperwork that was filed by the divorce, the default, and the divorce through Mr was all lies, all perjury.

brothers girlfriend is a paralegal and I feel that she is the one who notarized the paperwork, the divorce, the default, and the 3 pages of a fraudulent will. There were 3 pages, page 1 of 3, page 2 of 3, then page 4 of 3. How does that happen? Yet the judge allowed it to be entered as evidence.

This makes me not trust the legal system ever again. I deserved justice and got stabbed in the back. The criminals got away with lying, stealing, throwing me out of my home for no reason, and even tried to several times. His put an order of protection against me and I took it to court and it was squashed because didn't show up and he had lied. That is why I had to have standbys. Then told to get rid of my things, letting his drug addict girlfriends steal them. The judge was made aware of these things also.

I worked for years to buy the things I had before I and took care of them. Now the judge has let have it all. Is this justice? I believe not.

I am having my attorney take this to the court of appeals. If nothing happens there then I will take them to criminal court for allowing to conduct criminal business in house, which I mean the he as his girlfriends get from the dealer and take to the clients so they can be paid with drugs. Illegally throwing me out of my home, locking me out of my home, allowing drug addicts to steal my things, and for them keeping my things from me and hiding my things from me which on the paperwork it says the will be arrested if this occurs.

Thank you for reading this and for investigating Judge knew the and had grown up with them in

Again, he did tell all of us that he
