ORDER

The complainant alleged a municipal court judge was biased, dishonest, and abandoned her case. The complainant alleged a pro tem municipal court judge was also biased and was not prepared to sentence her. The complainant alleged another municipal court judge was also biased, abandoned her case, and made improper rulings in a criminal trial. Finally, the complainant alleged a superior court judge improperly denied her a new trial.

The responsibility of the Commission on Judicial Conduct is to impartially determine if the judges engaged in conduct that violated the provisions of Article 6.1 of the Arizona Constitution or the Code of Judicial Conduct and, if so, to take appropriate disciplinary action. The purpose and authority of the commission is limited to this mission.

The commission does not have jurisdiction to review the legal sufficiency of the judges' rulings. In addition, the commission found no evidence of ethical misconduct and concluded that the judges did not violate the Code in this case. Accordingly, the complaint is dismissed in its entirety as to all four judges, pursuant to Rules 16(a) and 23.
