Disposition of Complaint 15-199

Complainant:

ORDER

The complainant alleged a superior court commissioner did not allow him to present his evidence and improperly calculated his child support obligation.

The responsibility of the Commission on Judicial Conduct is to impartially determine if the commissioner engaged in conduct that violated the provisions of Article 6.1 of the Arizona Constitution or the Code of Judicial Conduct and, if so, to take appropriate disciplinary action. The purpose and authority of the commission is limited to this mission.

The commission does not have jurisdiction to review the legal sufficiency of the judicial officer's rulings. In addition, the commission found no evidence of ethical misconduct and concluded that the commissioner did not violate the Code in this case. Accordingly, the complaint is dismissed in its entirety, pursuant to Rules 16(a) and 23.

I ask courts for help on my visitation. The plaintiff has not ever followed divorce decree in the of my divorce. Judge with respect said it wasn't the courts responsibility & she couldn't do anything about that but was only worried about the calculator she had forgotten. She asked if I brought evidence but she never let me approach bench. She finally learned how to use the calculator on her computer. I truly believe she was under the influence of something.
