ORDER

An anonymous complainant alleged a justice of the peace was improperly advertising wedding services.

The responsibility of the Commission on Judicial Conduct is to impartially determine if the judge engaged in conduct that violated the provisions of Article 6.1 of the Arizona Constitution or the Code of Judicial Conduct and, if so, to take appropriate disciplinary action. The purpose and authority of the commission is limited to this mission.

After review, the commission found no evidence of ethical misconduct and concluded that the judge did not violate the Code in this case. The commission approved sending the judge an advisory letter to avoid the appearance of impropriety pursuant to Rule 1.2 of the Code, and to exercise caution when writing future articles for publication. The complaint is dismissed pursuant to Rules 16(b) and 23(a).
