

State of Arizona
COMMISSION ON JUDICIAL CONDUCT

Disposition of Complaint 15-238

Judge:

Complainant:

ORDER

The complainant alleged a superior court judge violated his civil rights.

The responsibility of the Commission on Judicial Conduct is to impartially determine if the judge engaged in conduct that violated the provisions of Article 6.1 of the Arizona Constitution or the Code of Judicial Conduct and, if so, to take appropriate disciplinary action. The purpose and authority of the commission is limited to this mission.

The commission does not have jurisdiction to review the legal sufficiency of the judge's rulings. In addition, the commission found no evidence of ethical misconduct and concluded that the judge did not violate the Code in this case. Accordingly, the complaint is dismissed in its entirety, pursuant to Rules 16(a) and 23.

Dated: October 7, 2015

FOR THE COMMISSION

RE:

Dear Sir or Ma'am:

Yesterday I was in court before Judge [redacted] for a [redacted] matter. My [redacted] was going to court for [redacted] of [redacted].

Judge [redacted] violated my civil rights now two time. His order that was imposed on me was not to have any contact with [redacted] and to say something nice all the time. His other order also stated I was not to [redacted] or [redacted] in anyway.

Because of the ambiguous nature of how that order has been written it can be and has been interrupted to by me to mean that since I am the [redacted] that no matter what I have no say and no authority to do anything in this [redacted]. Because if I need something to chance that would effect [redacted] then therefore I am [redacted]. And If I remove my personal property from their possession then in reality that I am [redacted]. This has forced me to be in exile in reality. As I have to lock myself into a bedroom not violate this court order.

While in court he didn't allow me to defend or even hear my side of anything. He wasn't impartial like the job description of a should be instead he had made up his mind and punished me for [redacted] in the [redacted] has already investigated the situation and has stated that I have done nothing wrong.

Judge [redacted] is going off [redacted] complaint that I supposedly [redacted] and [redacted] on a [redacted]. This in normal situations would be provable however I had [redacted] in my [redacted] not even [redacted] days before. Therefore I wasn't [redacted] anything.

I believe that if a Judge and a defense attorney is going to practice unethical standards like this, then they need to be disbarred and removed from the seat of power that they have. I also believe that the order needs to be reevaluated and have it be impartial to all involved.

Please feel free to contact me at the address above or the email. You may also contact me by phone [redacted].

I hate to make a complaint however no one is listening to me or will help me. So I have to appeal it to a higher authority the judge is subject too, and not believing he is above the law.

I appreciate your time and I look forward to your reply.

Sincerely,
