ORDER

The complainant alleged a justice of the peace improperly failed to appoint him an attorney in a forcible entry and detainer action.

The responsibility of the Commission on Judicial Conduct is to impartially determine if the judge engaged in conduct that violated the provisions of Article 6.1 of the Arizona Constitution or the Code of Judicial Conduct and, if so, to take appropriate disciplinary action. The purpose and authority of the commission is limited to this mission.

The commission does not have jurisdiction to review the legal sufficiency of the judge's rulings. In addition, the commission found no evidence of ethical misconduct and concluded that the judge did not violate the Code in this case. Accordingly, the complaint is dismissed in its entirety, pursuant to Rules 16(a) and 23.

That during the earlier part of the of proceedings I had asked the Judge if I had been basically read my maranda rights to which he said yes and shortly there after I asked for a total three times for legal council, legal advocate, or a lawyer of which Judge replied that I was not entitled to any one of them as this was a civil proceeding or trial.
