ORDER

The complainant alleged a superior court judge and a justice of the peace assisted a constable in wrongfully taking his property.

The responsibility of the Commission on Judicial Conduct is to impartially determine if the judges engaged in conduct that violated the provisions of Article 6.1 of the Arizona Constitution or the Code of Judicial Conduct and, if so, to take appropriate disciplinary action. The purpose and authority of the commission is limited to this mission.

The commission does not have jurisdiction to review the legal sufficiency of the judicial officers' rulings. In addition, the commission found no evidence of ethical misconduct and concluded that the judges did not violate the Code in this case. Accordingly, the complaint is dismissed in its entirety as to both judges, pursuant to Rules 16(a) and 23.

To whom it concerns,

Regretfully it has become necessary to seek relief from the improprieties exacted by the [redacted] in above case and action. As noted in the "Timeline" attached, I have made numerous attempts in seeking relief through Emergency Motions and in person when appearing before the Court. Each time I was warned about Ex Parte Communication and consequently would file another motion to no avail. Wife has refused process service and has not appeared.

My wife manipulated and persuaded a Constable to steal my pick-up truck parked at my friends house, and subsequently after having her served with Dissolution of Marriage Action, she has changed Title Ownership via Arizona DMV and has sold my vehicle. I was (marooned) at a friends house without any transportation, tools, equipment and materials needed to support my self.

I have experienced extreme "partial" indifference and intolerance from [redacted] without any regard for my dire circumstances and unfair treatment caused by the Wife, whom seems to be getting whatever advantage and exception to traditional Family Law practices. I have been denied multiple attempts for a "Civil Standby" to obtain necessary clothes and personal items including the vehicle.

[redacted] is known for manipulating and seeking advantage in every situation. I can NOT prove this, but I believe given the situation in this small community, that she has also manipulated the Judges Secretary and perhaps the Judge herself. The timing of certain activities has been highly suspect! Note the items on the "Timeline" with an asterix in front.

If [redacted] had exercised a routine "Standby" as he claims, then why did he lie about [redacted] telling him to take my truck or that he called [redacted] (friends I've lived with) before he came onto their property with 2 unknown strangers and quickly stole the vehicle. Immediately after [redacted] sought a grievance with the [redacted] caused a Restraining Order against [redacted] (reprisal). [redacted] did NOT at anytime make any threat toward [redacted]. Subsequently the Board dismissed his complaint without any investigation or testimony from [redacted].

Which leaves me in a situation where I do NOT have the transportation, tools and equipment needed to effectively support myself. This situation is exacerbated by the fact that [redacted] refuses any relief from my predicament thus creating personal harm and, compensable financial injury.

It is my prayer for relief and assistance through your consideration.
