ORDER

The complainant alleged a municipal court judge did not properly advise him of the charges filed against him, improperly refused to grant him a continuance, and improperly declined to appoint him an attorney. The complainant also alleged a pro tem municipal court judge improperly entered an order of protection without proof.

The responsibility of the Commission on Judicial Conduct is to impartially determine if the judges engaged in conduct that violated the provisions of Article 6.1 of the Arizona Constitution or the Code of Judicial Conduct and, if so, to take appropriate disciplinary action. The purpose and authority of the commission is limited to this mission.

The commission does not have jurisdiction to review the legal sufficiency of the judges' rulings. In addition, the commission found no evidence of ethical misconduct and concluded that the judges did not violate the Code in this case. Accordingly, the complaint is dismissed in its entirety, pursuant to Rules 16(a) and 23.
