COMMISSION ON JUDICIAL CONDUCT

Disposition of Complaint 16-076

Judge:

Complainant:

ORDER

The complainant alleged a superior court judge has improperly modified a restitution order in a criminal case.

The responsibility of the Commission on Judicial Conduct is to impartially determine if the judge engaged in conduct that violated the provisions of Article 6.1 of the Arizona Constitution or the Code of Judicial Conduct and, if so, to take appropriate disciplinary action. The purpose and authority of the commission is limited to this mission.

The commission does not have jurisdiction to review the legal sufficiency of the judge's rulings. In addition, the commission found no evidence of ethical misconduct and concluded that the judge did not violate the Code in this case. Accordingly, the complaint is dismissed in its entirety, pursuant to Rules 16(a) and 23(a).

Detail Complaint

On

The following disposition of case was agreed to pay full restitution for all losses by all persons who paid money or scammed by the losses total to about investors pay full restitution for all losses by Court identity theft victims

The Court and Attorney General Office wrongfully modified restitution amount to owed to victims.

The arrangement can be better resolved with a three category restitution: investors prioritized

Category One: place Victims that were scammed seek relief from credit card and debit card company with FDIC insured fraud protection the police and conviction report are on file

Category Two: lump sum victim recipients funds from property tax, defendants probation

Category Three: Monthly restitution payments property tax, probation payments paid out Month of and per year

The Victim Services annual budget of Property Year thru (years)

x years = lump sum payment money ready now

Defendants been on probation for a while when probation is finished transfer probation payments turn into restitution payments Category Three plus add property tax until fulfilled.

Right now the judge is in contempt of disposition the courts and Attorney General office mishandled the case been trying to recover money for years it has been a disservice
