ORDER

The complainant alleged a justice of the peace improperly gave legal advice, was biased against her, made a premature ruling, and improperly supervised a court clerk.

The responsibility of the Commission on Judicial Conduct is to impartially determine if the judge engaged in conduct that violated the provisions of Article 6.1 of the Arizona Constitution or the Code of Judicial Conduct and, if so, to take appropriate disciplinary action. The purpose and authority of the commission is limited to this mission.

The commission does not have jurisdiction to review the legal sufficiency of the judge's rulings. In addition, the commission found no evidence of ethical misconduct and concluded that the judge did not violate the Code in this case. Accordingly, the complaint is dismissed in its entirety, pursuant to Rules 16(a) and 23(a).

Commission member Anna Mary Glaab did not participate in the consideration of this matter.

Re:

On the [redacted] filed a motion from the [redacted] stating Rule [redacted], explaining the sequence that led to [redacted]. That motion was [redacted]. The [redacted] was not informed until [redacted]. The Court had been informed the [redacted] would be [redacted] to [redacted]. The [redacted] had planned the [redacted] the previous [redacted]. There was not time to file an appeal. Arrangements were made with [redacted] from my hometown in [redacted]. We would both lose money if plans were canceled.

[redacted] returned from California [redacted] with an [redacted] and was ill and worn out till the end of [redacted]. On [redacted] the [redacted] wrote a letter to the Judge repeating the information of the [redacted] motion. The letter of [redacted] was returned to the [redacted] on [redacted] by [redacted] a [redacted]. The [redacted] was in the Court building that day to get a copy of the Judge's order of [redacted]. It was missing. Only the blank copy the [redacted] had printed out and sent along with the motion remained. [redacted] also returned that day the [redacted] response of [redacted] to the [redacted] motion [redacted], also the motion of [redacted] asked if the [redacted] would file a motion. The [redacted] responded " [redacted]. " On [redacted] the [redacted] filed a motion of [redacted] and [redacted].

On [redacted] the [redacted] again went to the Court building to examine the Judge's file. That time [redacted] came to the [redacted]. She asked, " [redacted] ?" I responded " [redacted]. " [redacted] said, " [redacted]. " She then shouted, " [redacted]. " ?" I asked " [redacted]. " ?" She replied " [redacted]. "

On [redacted] returned by mail my motion of [redacted] stating it was by Judge [redacted] order and the case would be sent to archives to be destroyed. (See Exhibit C)

It appears that since it was discovered on [redacted] that a mistake was made by presenting the Judge the [redacted] and the [redacted] motions in the incorrect order, [redacted] went out of [redacted] way to cover the mistake. Does a [redacted] have the authority to change records? Is the letter accompanying the return of the [redacted] motion of [redacted] legitimate? Why was the [redacted] sent a copy of that letter and not the original? (See Exhibit C)

The [redacted] would like to believe all our Judge's have a lot to do and Judge [redacted] both motions because they were presented in the incorrect order. The [redacted] would also like to believe the Judge's order form [redacted] the [redacted] motion of [redacted] is not legal. It is not stamped with the Judge's seal. (See Exhibit D)
