

State of Arizona
COMMISSION ON JUDICIAL CONDUCT

Disposition of Complaint 17-111

Judge:

Complainant:

ORDER

The complainant alleged a superior court commissioner should have recused himself from her cases and issued improper rulings.

The responsibility of the Commission on Judicial Conduct is to impartially determine if the commissioner engaged in conduct that violated the provisions of Article 6.1 of the Arizona Constitution or the Code of Judicial Conduct and, if so, to take appropriate disciplinary action. The purpose and authority of the commission is limited to this mission.

The commission does not have jurisdiction to review the legal sufficiency of the commissioner's rulings. In addition, the commission found no evidence of ethical misconduct and concluded that the commissioner did not violate the Code in this case. Accordingly, the complaint is dismissed in its entirety, pursuant to Rules 16(a) and 23(a).

Commission member Art Hinshaw did not participate in the consideration of this matter.

is a _____ in which upon a time worked for _____ is well known in my small _____. She is a homeowner in _____ and I am as well in _____. She _____ However her abuse of the title goes beyond flexing the authority of just the _____ promised to abide by when signing them with regards to all in mind. However being _____ holds an even higher title in which she signed an oath to allegiance in good faith the constitution will be done as it was intended solely as it is written for all in harmony as a well functioning society to live. This authority of enforcing these duties have been clearly abused both in the courts and in the community in which I live..

_____ worked for _____ and though she no longer serves the Judges ruling she still has her political views as to personally gain power over the title the court gives her the privilege only in good cause.. However it is clear when _____ makes a personal visit to _____ expressing her opinion how she feels about me as a person and falsely has him issue over the _____ at _____ orders.. I did not understand why they were considered to be something meant for my behavior in the manner in which they were served..

I did not contest the first _____ for if that made her feel as though it was justified in doing so it seemed harmless.. I cannot ignore what extreme harm it has become in now I am being severely harassed to the point of a mental breakdown for the order to be solely to provoke a reaction that would violate the order making me break the law.. The last _____ orders I contested _____ recused himself and sent me on a wild goose chase to an address that did not exist on the order. I managed to find the court by the judges name only. I did have the order of _____ dismissed for it was based on lies and here say. The next _____ of _____ was at a court in _____ clear out of my _____ jurisdiction. This judge gave me the impression I had already lost before it started. With the politics of it all it was issued as justified..

I decided to get my _____ orders on them however to make the grounds appear fair in their equal participation in this juvenile behavior. I was able to get my own _____ without the fabricated lies that was described in their orders against me. _____ contested my order and the judge found my evidence went beyond a doubt of torture in which I endure on a regular basis. _____ didn't bother contesting it for the described harassment was known it was caught on tape when he tried to make it look like a stalking of me allegedly following them in their car..

_____ bogusly signed orders in which no good cause was found to do so in the first place. I have been relentlessly harassed by them since they unlawfully been issued these orders to begin with.. Wanting to understand the reason a _____ would honor such an order to begin with I payed him a visit so as to resolve any confusion either I may have had with the _____ or what may have been in _____ mind in the utter incompetence one displayed in justifying the case. What _____ revealed to me was this, It is a conflict of interest in _____ working with him showing he did it to appease his old friend and admitted to me he would get visits from her complaining about me being a menace to the community. This has no basis for enforcement to be true in my loving nature..

These _____ orders I have on them are to keep them away from me, their _____ orders on me are clearly to mentally torment my mind into insanity. Since they got the order by _____ there have been _____ cameras put up outside their unit against the _____ enforcing the rules of the _____ we all have to abide by. I was told they were sent letters to take them down and they refuse..

I am harassed by surveillance, by false police reports, false reports to take care of my _____ roommate, _____ saying they have video of me _____ I am made a prisoner in my home for _____ gave them the legal right to do these barbaric things. There is court after court I go to because of these outright lies that I have to see a counselor and mental health nurse. I have proof of all this mental anguish
