COMMISSION ON JUDICIAL CONDUCT

Disposition of Complaint 18-068

Judge:

Complainant:

ORDER

The complainant alleged a superior court judge improperly entered a default judgment against him. The complainant may have misidentified the judicial officer involved.

The responsibility of the Commission on Judicial Conduct is to impartially determine if the judge engaged in conduct that violated the provisions of Article 6.1 of the Arizona Constitution or the Code of Judicial Conduct and, if so, to take appropriate disciplinary action. The purpose and authority of the commission is limited to this mission.

The commission does not have jurisdiction to review the legal sufficiency of the judge's rulings. In addition, the commission found no evidence of ethical misconduct and concluded that the judge did not violate the Code in this case. Accordingly, the complaint is dismissed in its entirety, pursuant to Rules 16(a) and 23(a).

Commission member Peter J. Eckerstrom did not participate in the consideration of this matter.

I need a motion to set aside default judgement. (At least that's what the judge from today's hearing said.)

Today the judge didn't even understand what the hearing is for or what is it about.

Today's hearing is the first so called hearing that i received notification for and it turned out not to be a hearing at all since nobody asked for my side of the story at all.

Enter this in the motion to set aside default judgement since i have no income , no health and nobody to represent me properly:

1. The _____ house purchased by _____ was purchased using my money.
2. Nobody notified me of any previous hearings. Today's hearing is the first and it was no hearing at all.
3. I want my money back.
4. I want the house back together with all my personal items that were left behind. (computers , etc.)
