

State of Arizona
COMMISSION ON JUDICIAL CONDUCT

Disposition of Complaint 19-039

Judge:

Complainant:

ORDER

June 10, 2019

The Complainant alleged a municipal court judge (now retired) forged her signature, altered court documents, and placed her on probation without her knowledge.

The role of the Commission on Judicial Conduct is to impartially determine whether a judicial officer has engaged in conduct that violates the Arizona Code of Judicial Conduct or Article 6.1 of the Arizona Constitution. There must be clear and convincing evidence of such a violation in order for the Commission to take disciplinary action against a judicial officer.

The Commission does not have jurisdiction to overturn, amend, or remand a judicial officer's legal rulings. The Commission reviewed all relevant available information and concluded there was not clear and convincing evidence of ethical misconduct in this matter. The complaint is therefore dismissed pursuant to Rules 16(a) and 23(a).

Commission members Denise K. Aguilar and George H. Foster, Jr., did not participate in the consideration of this matter.

Copies of this order were distributed to all appropriate persons on June 10, 2019.

Hi! This is [REDACTED]. Attached is what my fiancé found online. After [REDACTED], I wanted to find a job. This was the first time from [REDACTED] ago, I received indication that there is something wrong with my background check after [REDACTED] and the reason why I couldn't get a job. I had never had trouble before in [REDACTED] or [REDACTED] after I left court in [REDACTED]. All, I had to do was to remain a good citizen for [REDACTED] and they will drop the weapon charge when I agree that the court confiscated my weapon. That was NOT the case after [REDACTED] currently in [REDACTED]. I found out the judge or court put me on probation or extended probation without mine and my public defender's presence AND knowledge. In the following email, will be attached the form that the court/judge forged my signature. I called immediately my public defender to explain to me what happened and who is supposed to be my "[REDACTED]". She is avoiding my phone calls.

This is the most important form 100% fully forged by the court/judge including my signature without my presence and I believe without my public defender's presence. I will send two(2) other samples of my signatures. On this forged form, the " ' and " " are not my style. I do not write [redacted] that looks like [redacted] and I will always have a [redacted]

An important note: I would NEVER EVER refuse legal counsel or waiver my constitutional rights at the mercy of a judge. I would rather get a jury trial and I am a firm [redacted]

- Other: _____

Defendant appears: with counsel without counsel (waiver of counsel with file) and understands the following:

Defendant has entered into a: plea agreement, and consents to its terms; plea to the court.

Defendant understands the range of penalty is:

- a suspended sentence up to a maximum $2,500 fine plus surcharges, 6 months in jail, and/or 3 years probation.
- a suspended sentence up to a maximum $ 750 fine plus surcharges, 4 months in jail, and/or 2 years probation.
- a suspended sentence up to a maximum $ 500 fine plus surcharges, 30 days in jail and/or 1 year probation.

* Offenses require a mandatory minimum sentence and do not allow a suspended sentence.

5. If arrested on a second offense, defendant may be charged with a more serious offense and associated penalties.

5. The Court has inquired as to the defendant's probation or parole status.

7. The defendant was advised of the following: If you are not a citizen of the United States, pleading guilty or no contest to a crime may affect your immigration status. Admitting guilt may result in deportation even if the charge is later dismissed. Your plea or admission of guilt could result in your deportation or removal, could prevent you from ever being able to get legal status in the United States, or could prevent you from becoming a United States citizen.

8. Defendant understands that the following constitutional rights are given up by changing the plea:

- a. Right to plead not guilty and require the State to prove guilt beyond a reasonable doubt.
- b. Right to a trial by jury by a judge.
- c. Right to assistance of an attorney at all stages of the proceeding, including appeal. In some cases, the defendant may be eligible for a court-appointed attorney at a reduced cost or at no cost, if the defendant cannot afford one.
- d. Right to confront the witnesses against the defendant and to cross-examine them as to the truthfulness of their testimony.
- e. Right to present evidence in the defendant's own behalf and to have the court compel the defendant's chosen witnesses to appear and testify free of charge.
- f. Right to remain silent, not to incriminate oneself, and to be presumed innocent unless/or until proven guilty beyond a reasonable doubt.
- g. Right to a direct appeal.

9. Defendant wishes to give up these constitutional rights after having been advised of them.

0. There exists a basis in fact for believing the defendant guilty of the offenses charged.

1. The plea is voluntary and not the result of force or threat, or promises other than those contained in the plea agreement.

2. Defendant may file a Rule 32 Petition for post-conviction relief and if denied may file a petition for review.

On the basis of these findings, I conclude that the defendant knowingly, voluntarily, and intelligently pleads: to the above charges, and I accept this plea.

Date _____ Judge _____

I certify that the judge personally advised me of the nature of the charges, range of penalties, and my constitutional rights as indicated above. I understand the constitutional rights which I give up by entering this plea, and I desire to plead guilty or no contest as indicated above. I desire to proceed without an attorney or if represented, my attorney's signature appears below.
