

State of Arizona
COMMISSION ON JUDICIAL CONDUCT

Disposition of Complaint 19-106

Judge:

Complainant:

ORDER

July 3, 2019

The Complainant alleged a justice of the peace was bribed and improperly evicted him.

The role of the Commission on Judicial Conduct is to impartially determine whether a judicial officer has engaged in conduct that violates the Arizona Code of Judicial Conduct or Article 6.1 of the Arizona Constitution. There must be clear and convincing evidence of such a violation in order for the Commission to take disciplinary action against a judicial officer.

The Commission does not have jurisdiction to overturn, amend, or remand a judicial officer's legal rulings. The Commission reviewed all relevant available information and concluded there was not clear and convincing evidence of ethical misconduct in this matter. The complaint is therefore dismissed pursuant to Rules 16(a) and 23(a).

Commission members Denise K. Aguilar and Barbara Brown did not participate in the consideration of this matter.

Copies of this order were distributed to all appropriate persons on July 3, 2019.

The dishonorable _____ signed protective order for individuals who have pending charges and cases for heinous forms of violence against my family and I. _____ signed such orders prior to approval and completion of multiple open police reports, which in addition were considered open even following my forced uniust eviction from my apartment. Despite the multiple open police reports, the dishonorable _____ falsely deemed it was appropriate to sign four protective orders for the _____ of whom had attempted murder against me, co nspiracy of murder against me, attempted rape sexual assault against me, aggravated assault, attempted aggravated assault, attempted manslaughter, cybertheft with respect to my computer data and information , theft with respect to money and doctor prescribed medicine in mv bedroom. at the incident for which she based the orders on. The other _____ who had such orders signed by _____ had pending cases of attempted murder against me, conspiracy of murder against me, attempted manslaughter against me, attempted rape and or sexual assault against me, cons piracy of manslaughter against me, cybertheft with respect to my computer data and information, theft with respect to money and doctor prescribed medicine stored in my bedroom, attempted manslaughter, atte mpted rape sexual assault against a minor _____ and aggravated assault against a minor (my _____ and the latter of those _____ ; committed by these individuals I strongly denounce here a nd consider highly unacceptable, which raises the question as to how these individuals were let off so eas y to roam the streets and laugh it off like it was nothing and that is truly illustrates the disgrace and injustic e in this situation. In turn, I defended myself at the instance, in question, on _____ against the _____ and I was the _____ at the time of the incident. I was then thrown around and a rrested by _____ shortly following the incident on _____ a nd taken to the _____ for the remainder of the day while the other _____ were not furt her questioned nor arrested at that point in time with respect to the aggravated assault and attempted ma nslauhter for which they should have been held accountable in the court of iustice. As of _____ exactly all of the _____ reated on _____ were still considered op ened, uncompleted, and unapproved. In turn, the lead _____ has yet t o return my calls and requests for information surrounding the multiple cases he singlehandedly opened. After I was unjustly held at _____ for the remainder of the day following my arrest on _____ I was then released on Post Release pertinent to the _____ judiciary's discretion and a pproval. I returned to my _____ and was preparing for bed when a relative of the aggressor s, who did not currently live in the apartment at the time, and their father and a security guard for the apart ment approached me in the hallway and exhibited confrontational behavior and conduct and then much to my surprise, the police were called under false pretenses by these individuals that had confronted me ag gressively and accessed my apartment unit without a warrant and stated, " _____ however,

Furthermore, after speaking with the _____ one was identified a _____ and the other did not identify himself but exhibited aggressive and confrontational behavior. In addition, I was unjustly placed under arrest for which _____ stated that a warrant was placed out for my arrest, signed by the _____ who coincidentally was held in custody at _____ or a multitude of crimes committed, including but not limited to _____ _____ uniforms brought me down to their squad cars and unjustly held me against my will, while they called to check the validity of the warrant, which was found to be falsely signed off on, and determine that I had not violated any of the terms and conditions of the Post Release form. I was then taken out of cuffs and permitted to return to my apartment shortly after being thrown in the back of one of the squad cars. In the day that followed, it had come to my attention that _____ _____ was not actually an _____ or had he ever been an _____ at any point in time prior to that, which was quite a surprise in light of the fact that he had placed me under arrest and put me in the back of a _____ and was driving a _____ _____ to my apartment and left driving that vehicle. Upon my follow up call at _____ I had requested information related to the cases unjustly opened in my name and was told that all of the reports were considered still open, incomplete, and not approved yet, I then requested the badge numbers of all of the _____ for the _____

_____ and the forced entry into my apartment without a warrant on _____ and the subsequent unjust forced eviction. I was given all of the badge numbers for every officer that committed the forced entries into my apartment and unwarranted arrests, but there was no record, badge number, nor information with respect to the _____ uniform on the second unwarranted arrest that ensued on _____

When I had asked if there was any additional information or officers at the second instance that could be offered at that point in time to supplement my notes, the _____ stated that there was no additional information associated with the cases nor was there any record at all of any second officer at the arrest on _____

When I had asked if there was any additional information or officers at the _____ that could be offered at that point in time to supplement my notes, the _____ telephone operator stated that there was no additional information associated with the cases nor was there any record at all of any _____ at the _____ Officers did not go about Due Process when I was evicted when the protective orders were signed and enforced. The question raised here was why were three law enforcement officers involved in a forced entry into the apartment unit where I lived on the _____ and why were they delivering for our protective orders from two of the aggressors at the incident that took place at _____ and _____ _____ and then threatening me with arrest if they did not evict me from my home at _____ and from the premises. The only option I was left with was to call for a _____ to drive me _____ to stay at my parent's home and incur the inability to be present and in person for all of my _____
