RE: Judge

OFFICIAL COMPLAINT OF JUDICIAL MISCONDUCT

I am not an attorney.

at the Court from approx. I was attending a court hearing in Judge court in courtroom

I was observing the court from the public seating area.

During the hearing, the defendant whom was not an attorney, the plaintiffs high powered team of counsel and witnesses went into findings and argument during the discovery, crippling the defendant's argument, though inevitable discovery is in play. A simple objection to this would have ended this charade of misuse of the platform and the plaintiff and Judge(s) knows this.

didn't stop this from happening. Upon review of the hearing you will find this to be true and accurate. The defendant was mistreated.

I my seat, to the defendant that The Judge directed himself toward me and scolded me for this. I responded to the Judge that the defendant was unrepresented and getting trampled by the prosecution and that he was allowing it. Partiality is questionable at this time in the proceedings.

then directed an official order for me to sit and be silent. I sat and remained silent. He then asked me if I understood this lawful order. I remained silent.

After a moment pause in complete silence, of his court room. I am uncertain; however, my silence and obedience disrupted the proceedings and warranted my removal from it. I felt badgered.

On my way out of the courtroom immediately after myself from the courtroom, I muttered that this was ridiculous and without merit. Observing him as I left, his expression and posture suggested great pleasure, appearing to be gratifying.

Following his exact orders resulted in my rights being violated and obstructed from attending this public hearing.

Compliance to each of orders were upheld.

I am scheduled to appear to this court with Honorable Judge presiding today). This is unacceptable.

A request to change Judge, submitted to the Court for this cause and action.

Thank you for reviewing this matter.
