ORDER

December 18, 2019

The Complainant alleged a justice of the peace violated her constitutional rights, improperly suspended her license, and issued a warrant for her arrest.

The role of the Commission on Judicial Conduct is to impartially determine whether a judicial officer has engaged in conduct that violates the Arizona Code of Judicial Conduct or Article 6.1 of the Arizona Constitution. There must be clear and convincing evidence of such a violation in order for the Commission to take disciplinary action against a judicial officer.

The Commission does not have jurisdiction to overturn, amend, or remand a judicial officer's legal rulings. The Commission reviewed all relevant available information and concluded there was not clear and convincing evidence of ethical misconduct in this matter. The complaint is therefore dismissed pursuant to Commission Rules 16(a) and 23(a).

Copies of this order were distributed to all appropriate persons on December 18, 2019.

The United States Supreme Court (359 U.S. 275 at 285) Interstate Compacts Article I, section 10 of the United States Constitution grants states the authority to enter into an "agreement or compact with another state" with the consent of Congress. The constitution contains no restrictions on the subject matter of a compact and is silent about the process by which states may enter into compacts, with the exception of the required consent of Congress. The United States Supreme Court (359 U.S. 275 at 285) opined in 1959 that an interstate compact is a "contract" protected by the Constitutions contract clause forbidding a state legislature to enact a " law impairing the obligation of contracts."
