COMMISSION ON JUDICIAL CONDUCT

Disposition of Complaint 20-083

Judge:

Complainant:

ORDER

June 25, 2020

The Complainant alleged a superior court commissioner improperly accepted an expert's report past the deadline.

The role of the Commission on Judicial Conduct is to impartially determine whether a judicial officer has engaged in conduct that violates the Arizona Code of Judicial Conduct or Article 6.1 of the Arizona Constitution. There must be clear and convincing evidence of such a violation in order for the Commission to take disciplinary action against a judicial officer.

The Commission does not have jurisdiction to overturn, amend, or remand a judicial officer's legal rulings. The Commission reviewed all relevant available information and concluded there was not clear and convincing evidence of ethical misconduct in this matter. The complaint is therefore dismissed pursuant to Commission Rules 16(a) and 23(a).

Copies of this order were distributed to all appropriate persons on June 25, 2020.

Fruit of the poisonous tree doctrine.

Not only is evidence that's the product of an illegal search generally inadmissible in court, but so too is additional evidence that derived from the initial evidence.

This principle is colorfully known as the "fruit of the poisonous tree" doctrine.

After a careful look at the information you have provided and after discussing this with our attorney, I suggest that you seek legal counsel. The allegations you have made are best handled in a court as they are beyond my ability or authority to sort out due to their legal nature. I would also suggest that you work closely with _____ to assist you.

Thank you for reaching out and I wish you all the best,
