ORDER

December 23, 2020

The Complainant alleged a superior court judge's recusal from his criminal case unduly delayed his trial and release from custody.

The role of the Commission on Judicial Conduct is to impartially determine whether a judicial officer has engaged in conduct that violates the Arizona Code of Judicial Conduct or Article 6.1 of the Arizona Constitution. There must be clear and convincing evidence of such a violation in order for the Commission to take disciplinary action against a judicial officer.

The Commission reviewed all relevant available information and concluded there was not clear and convincing evidence of ethical misconduct in this matter. The complaint is therefore dismissed pursuant to Commission Rules 16(a) and 23(a).

Commission members Barbara Brown and Joseph C. Kreamer did not participate in the consideration of this matter.

Copies of this order were distributed to all appropriate persons on December 23, 2020.

Commission On Judicial Conduct,

I Was Arrested At
And Charged With 13 Counts. Judge Has Been
My Judge For Almost Now.

On At A Release Conditions Hearing
Judge Announced That His Wife Works At The
Where I Was Arrested, This Is A Conflict Of Interest
Because He Favors His Wife's Employment.

On Judge Was
To Rule On My Release Conditions, But Canceled My Hearing
And Stepped Down Of Being My Judge.

This Has And Still Is Causing Me To Be Held
Unlawfully Detained In Jail. This Is Delaying
My Right To Trial, And I Was Ordered In (Rule 11) For No Reason In Thus Violating
My 8th Amendment Rights: Cruel And Unusual Punishment.

Also, I Have Accused Judge
Of Being Biased In Case No. In The Past,
But My Case Was Dismissed By Commission On Judicial
Conduct. Therefore, I Am Requesting New Case Number
But To Have Reference To Case No.
