COMMISSION ON JUDICIAL CONDUCT

Disposition of Complaint 21-315

Judges:

Complainants:

ORDER

March 23, 2022

The Complainants alleged that three superior court judicial officers had ruled incorrectly on three underlying matters.

The role of the Commission on Judicial Conduct is to impartially determine whether a judicial officer has engaged in conduct that violates the Arizona Code of Judicial Conduct or Article 6.1 of the Arizona Constitution. There must be clear and convincing evidence of such a violation in order for the Commission to take disciplinary action against a judicial officer.

The Commission does not have jurisdiction to overturn, amend, or remand a judicial officer's legal rulings. The Commission reviewed all relevant available information and concluded there was not clear and convincing evidence of ethical misconduct in this matter. The complaint is therefore dismissed pursuant to Commission Rules 16(a) and 23(a).

Commission members Denise K. Aguilar and Delia R. Neal did not participate in the consideration of this matter.

Copies of this order were distributed to all appropriate persons on March 23, 2022.

re:

Dear _____,

I want to thank you in advance for your phone message.
Last _____ I filed an expedited motion to send the case to the _____ Court.

Just to give you another written run down of events they are as follows:

My son, _____ had a daughter with _____ who got married to _____, her name now _____ suffers from being bipolar and shows signs of Munchausen by Proxy.

So _____ was born _____; _____ and _____ went to court and in front of Judge _____ the custody was 50/50.

For the _____ years from birth until now _____ has done every Fatherly duty as possible.

Paid for her, went to every event at school, every cheerleading and softball event as well.

I did also as her GrandMother.

_____ attends _____ School but misses most of the time during parenting with Mother. She allows her to stay out with friends, stays up all night and allows her to miss school.

admitted she has taken her to the doctor times in one year then files an Order of Protection against it was dismissed, Commission told both them that you cannot list the same dependent child.

She filed an Order of Protection against me when I dropped off documents to the school and said I went to pick up.

I have picked up from school for years but wasn't that day; in fact it was on a ; school is out at and I was at the school at ; verified by ;

The Commissioner insisted on Parental Interference and would not dismiss the order against me.

Right after the Order of Protection was dismissed against (the day after) she went into the of and requested another one;

The order again signed off by , who caused herself perjury.

As you can see these Orders of Protections were merely to stop the child from being with her Father and family.

filed for emergency order of custody or at least temporary and of course Judge denied every motion and I believe set a hearing in so obviously does not care of the child's well being.

tried to have Police Department assist; they filed reports of Custodial Interference and said that they cannot transfer a child from one parent to another even with a court order.

That's why we tried filing emergency Motions.

is disputing and appealing the last Order of Protection; I am including a copy of the hearing date set for

According to the employees in the _____ of the _____ Court in the _____ anyone can file Orders of Protection numerous times without cause; the request is emailed to a Commissioner and signed off without any worthiness and sealed with Judge _____ stamp of approval.

This does not seem like justice or honesty.

Again I so appreciate your assistance in this matter and pray for an appeal asap.
